(1967) - IMDb 'A Red Heart of Memories' tells the story of Matt, a homeless young (ish) woman who has the ability (probably due to past drug abuse) to mentally speak with inanimate objects. She meets a drifter, Edmund, who communes with 'spirit' and together they set out to recover his past, finding his A Red Heart of Memories by Nina Kiriki Hoffman There's a line - a sentiment, actually - that governments everywhere really need to take to heart. "Don't just do something - stand there." Of course they won't - because they're governments. But it would be a lot cooler if they did. Why do we want them standing there - rather than doing something? Because almost always the things they do - are awful and | <a class ... Hey
